PUBLIC VEHICLE/PEDICAB/LOW-SPEED VEHICLE DRIVER LICENSE APPLICATION GUIDELINES

In accordance with Section 36, Sarasota City Code, each driver shall be licensed to operate a vehicle for hire/pedicab by the Office of the City Manager, Parking Division. The Applicant must submit a legal name, address, and Driver License number, and copies of the applicant's Florida Department of Law Enforcement Criminal History and Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles Driver License History records, to the Office of the City Manager, Parking Division.

In accordance with Section 36, Sarasota City Code, the City Manager, Parking Division is entitled to deny any driver license application if the applicant's Driver or Criminal History reveals the applicant within the past three years has been convicted or had adjudication withheld of a felony, driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol, reckless driving, any violation of Chapter 800, Florida Statutes, pertaining to lewdness and indecent exposure, or any violation of Chapter 796, Florida Statutes, pertaining to prostitution. Additionally, the City Manager, Parking Division is entitled to deny any driver license application if the applicant is a registered sexual predator or offender. The City Manager, Parking Division shall deny the application of any applicant who has diplomatic immunity, has less than 6 months driving experience, does not possess a current driver license from the State, who is less than the age of the majority, or who has operated a public vehicle within the City without a public vehicle license within one year of the date of the application.

The fee for a driver license is $35. Renewal fee is $20.

You may submit your Driver License Application and fees to:
